

I am limited to one cable provider in my area. This seems to be an illegal monopoly that leads to extremely high prices and poor service. Until this problem is solved, I feel I should be able to select a la carte channels and not be forced into a package deal.